Before the district attorney's vehement protest Justice Fitzgerald had handed to him and to Mr. Hartridge, counsel for the defense, carbon copies of the commission's full report. It was from the defendant's counsel table that the nature of the decision first became known. Mr. Hartridge rushed over and whispered to Mrs. William Thaw and Mrs. Evelyn Neshit Thaw and then sens a messenger the Webster letter which has caused such a wide discussion with the president, was arraigned in the Tombs police court today. Harriman's attorney asked for a postponement to enable him to collect evidence, and the case was adjourned to Monday at 10 a. m. Hill was released on bail.

The letter in question was addressed by Mr. Harriman to Sydney Webster and was first published here by The World last Tuesday morning. Statements therein contained called forth a reply from President Roosevelt Tuesday afternoon. Hill is 37 years of age and lives in Brooklyn.

Action against Hill was taken under the section of the penal code which defines as a misdemeanor the act of "a person who wilfully and wichout authority either takes a letter, telegram or private paper belonging to another, or a copy thereof," and publishes the whole or any portion thereof."

Rutland, April 5.—Continuance until the next term of the county court has been allowed in the sensational Ira shooting case, in which Andrew Farrell is accused of deliberately discharging a Great Cyclone Struck Alexan gun at grace Gilmore on the evening of her marriage to Charles Gilmore at her father's house in Ira, seriously wound at Randolph To-day ing her in the arm.

The defense filed motion for con-timuance, alleging that two important witnesses, because of illness, would be unable to attend court this term. The witnesses mentioned are Thomas Toolicy and Bridget Gilmore, who, according to doctor's certificates, are ill at Hoosick Falls, N. Y.

By the aid of Toohey's testimony the defense hopes to establish the fact that Farrell did not have any gun in his possession at any time during the evening of the shooting. The notion states that Toohey was talking with Farrell at the time of the shooting and that he will so testify at the trial.
